CASE STUDY

About Beno soft

Beno soft is India's one of the good software developing organizations in India. They are having multi offices pan India and we have deployed Dect Phones in Noida Branch. They also provide online support to different organizations across the globe.

Customer Requirement

- The Director was looking for a Cordless Intercom device for Noida Office.
- They want to use their existing Panasonic PBX
- They were looking for a Cordless phone with better range and good audio quality

Solution Offered

We did installed Grandstream DP750 & DP720 and configured on their existing Panasonic PBX. As their office was extended to 3 floors so we kept the base station DP750 at the middle floor so the DP720 can cover all three floors.

Challenges Faced

Competitors like analog cordless phones and size of the office.
